

The Yolo Democrat.

COUNTY AND TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

WOODLAND, CAL.:
Saturday, March 30th, 1872.

To Publishers of Interior Newspapers.

Being satisfied that the Advertising Agency business, as at present managed, is ruinous to the interests of the Interior Newspapers of the State, and that some concerted action has become absolutely necessary to remedy the evil, the undersigned, respectfully request the Publishers of Interior Newspapers to meet in Convention, at the City of San Francisco, on the SIXTEENTH DAY OF APRIL, 1872, at eleven o'clock A. M. of said day, to take into consideration this and other matters that may be to our mutual advantage.

ADDENDUM: GREEN, Colusa Sun.
WM. SAUNDERS, The Yolo Democrat.
BUNKER & PORTER, Contra Costa Gazette.
STEWART & HILL, Contra Costa Gazette.
JEROME A. BAKER, Marin Journal.
A. E. WAGSTAFF, Yolo Mail.

APPOINTED.—A. P. Catlin, of Sacramento, has been appointed as a member of the State Board of Equalization, vice Eate, resigned.

DELIGHTFUL WEATHER.—The showers of the past few days have made vegetation even brighter than before. There is no mud, no dust, and with the thermometer at 70 the weather is absolutely delightful. Crops are growing splendidly. Alfalfa is very rank and nearly ready for the mower.

"MERCE PEOPLE."—This is the name of a new weekly newspaper just started at the new town of Merced, in the county of that name, by Harry H. Grapic. It proclaims itself entirely independent—what new paper does not?—is able and tastefully gotten up both as to contents and typography, and we wish it all due success.

"HANDICRAFT."—This is the name of a new candidate for public favor of which the number has just come to hand. It is a 16-page book, beautifully printed and illustrated. Handicraft professes to be published in the interest of Progress and the Industrial Arts, and designed for workers and thinkers. Single copies 10 cts; per year $3. Address, Handicraft Publication Co., 37 Park Row, New York City.

HOLIDAYS.—The California code declares every day on which an election is held throughout the State a holiday. The holidays, or non-judicial days, as established by the code, are: Sunday, January 1, February 22, July 4, December 25, every day on which a general election is held, and every day appointed by the President of the United States or by the Governor of this State for a public fast, thanksgiving or holiday.

NEW MUSIC.—We have received from Mr. Gray's Music Store, Nos. 623-25 Clay street, San Francisco—who supplies all kinds of music and musical instruments at the lowest rates—the following choice music: "Kiss and Make it Up," song and chorus—very pretty—dedicated to Miss Louise Moore; words by Geo. Cooper; music by Wm. Adison Smith. "Grand Duke Alexis Welcome March," a gallop for the piano, published by Oliver Ditson & Co., N. Y., with splendid frontispiece by Brady. "Sea Breeze Waltz," composed for the piano by Miss Hattie Belle Howe, of Toledo, and dedicated to Miss Kate Atkinson, N. Y. These pieces or any other can be obtained from Mr. Gray as above.

THE ALDINE FOR APRIL.—The feature of this issue is an exquisite design by Victor Neblig, entitled "Morning Dew." This is the frontispiece promised every quarter. We find two other full page plates—Interior, by Enslie, engraved in a masterly manner by Henry Linton, and a view of the "Hudson at Hyde Park," by Geo. Smith; "The Little Mother," by John S. Davis. Pictorially this number justifies the highest commendations. The literary department is well sustained. Among its stories, which are always good, we may mention "Mr. Maximilian's Morning-dew's Advice," a curious psychological study by Julian Hawthorne; "The Story of Coello," a romantic incident in the life of a famous Spanish painter, by R. B. Davey; "On the Eastern Shore of Virginia," a pleasant sketch of American life and scenery, by Mary E. Bradley, and "Cosa de España," an entertaining account of the difficulties of Spanish travel. The statement of the publishers that the edition is already within a fraction of 50,000 copies per month will be hailed as a vindication of American taste and appreciation. We are glad that our neighborhood is represented among the patrons of The Aldine. The subscription price, including a pretty all-chrome premium, is $5—and the publishers' address is James Sutton & Co., 23 Liberty Street, New York.

BODY RECOVERED.—The body of Ella, daughter of W. E. Shelton, who was drowned in the Yuba river last Thursday afternoon, says the Marysville Standard of the 25th, was recovered yesterday afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock, by a Kanaka, who, with a companion, came over from Colusa with the intention of diving for the body. These two Kanakas are great experts in water, having been in the employ of Ball & Pender, as fishermen. The locality of the accident was pointed out to the two men, when one of them traced the current of the river to a whirlpool near the east end of the bridge, and there one of the Kanakas decided the body must be. Accordingly he prepared himself for diving, and went down a distance of about fifteen feet, where the body was found, a rope tied to it and soon afterward hauled to the surface. The men being entitled to the $100 reward, the sum was paid to them, by Geo. Smith, the grand-father of the child. The body was removed to the residence of Mr. Smith, corner of Fifth and J streets, from whence the funeral took place.

SACRAMENTO LETTER.
SACRAMENTO, March 27th, 1872.
EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—DEAR SIR:—An important bill passed the Senate on the 20th, and was immediately transmitted to the Governor for his signature. It was introduced into the Assembly by Mr. Wheaton. This Act authorized the Revision Commission to index and publish the Code. It also empowered them to select, arrange and publish all the statutes not repealed or superseded by the Code in an additional volume, thus giving all the laws of the State complete in five volumes.

THE ELECTION LAW.—As enacted in the Code, is also put into force and effect before the coming general election, together with those portions of the Penal Code that refer to the enforcement of the Election law. This was needed, as the general laws of the Code do not go into operation until January, 1873. There are some radical changes in the mode of conducting our elections.

THE BALLOT.—It is made of uniform size, shape and color. It is twelve inches long and four inches wide, and must be folded four times and pressed together, making it three-fourths of an inch by four inches. The paper is supplied by the proper officer, and there must be no mark, or printing, or device whatsoever, by which can be distinguished one ballot from another.

SOLICITING VOTES.—Around the polls on the day of election is prevented, and no person, under a penalty, is allowed to ask for the vote of another within one hundred feet of where the polls are held; nor is anyone allowed to exhibit his vote. The object, and there are a great many minor provisions, is to make the voter independent of all persons and circumstances on this day.

POLICE BILL.—This naturally brings to our mind a bill for the regulation of the police of San Francisco. This bill provides that no policeman shall talk or discuss politics on the day of any election, nor at any time, while on official duty or employment as a policeman.

SAN DENITO COUNTY.—To the credit of this Legislature new county bills have been below par. There was a strong effort made by Mr. Beck to divide the county of Monterey and make two long, slender or narrow counties of it, calling the one by the name of the city at the head of this paragraph.

COUNTY SEAT OF MONTEREY.—The Senate finally passed Senate Bill 311, allowing the citizens to vote upon the location of a county seat; but it went through by a close shave.

RAILROAD BILL.—A bill granting the right of way to construct a railroad from Owen's Lake to Los Angeles, and giving a fee simple to the land for two miles on each side of the road, and a right to all the timber, water and stone for fifteen miles on each side, if the same was needed, was advocated by Mr. Irwin and some others very warmly, but others thought it was an effort to secure a certain pass through the Southern mountains, and that by giving two miles on each side, the exclusive right to the Southern pass—Tehom, or some other pass, would be secured, and on second sober thought it was voted down.

LEGAL DISTANCES.—An important Assembly bill passed the Senate, in which the legal distances from every county seat in the State to the State Capitol, the Lanatic Asylum and the State Prison were fixed. Hereafter, there can be no swindling by officials on this matter.

STATE PRINTER.—A number of bills were introduced upon the subject of State printing, of which the Legislature chose Mr. Luttrell as the best. The bill provides for the appointment of an Expert, the duty of the Expert is to review all work and certify to the quality and quantity of work done. The State Printer is to do the work for the usual prices, and is removable by the Governor for any good cause; he is a kind of superintendent. We did not think the bill a well-guarded or carefully drawn one. It goes too much on generalities—does not particularize sufficiently. This Act does not take effect until July, 1875—after another Legislature meets and adjourns—and we shall see if the very next does not repeal this law.

STATE LIBRARY CABINET.—It is a shame that in a State whose whole attraction, at first, was the mineral wealth of the country, has no good cabinet at the Capitol. We ought now to have had a collection of the most beautiful specimens of minerals in the world. It ought to be the great attraction at our Library room. Well, better late than never.

AERIAL STEAM NAVIGATION CO.—We had a pamphlet laid on our desk asking for aid for the above-named company. There is a bill prepared, but not yet introduced. The savans of San Francisco think this will yet be a success. It does not do to risk a laugh at it, there are too many wise men engaged in it. The little book contains a picture of the steam flying machine. It is of the shape of a cigar sharpened at each end, and fans, or wings running the whole length. The ends are filled with gas, and the centre with the steam works and any enthusiastic, inventive suicide who wishes to go along with it.

PENDEGAST AS RICHELIEU.—When the Senator does the dramatic robes, and enters the arena for theatrical honors he must expect criticism. Well, we are no great critic in this special branch of literature, but have had some experience in the way of attendance upon this very play of Richelieu. The rendering the other night was middling, and a part of it excellent. The apostrophes to France, when they occurred, were well spoken. There was no imitation of any in all the first three acts. The last had some resemblance to the character he was representing. We confess we would rather have his representation as a Senator than as a player.

CONTRACT OF COURT.—Mr. Wand introduced a bill to relieve a gentleman named Alfred Mooney, who, it appears, is in prison for contempt of Court, placed there by His Honor Stephen J. Field, of the U. S. Court. We asked a friend at our side about the case, when he explained that the Supreme Court had placed a half-witted old man in jail for telling too much truth about this same Court.

THEY ought to let him out for shame sake; and, if our Legislature can do it, they ought to turn him out. For shame, Stephen! When didst thou get above remark? When we knew these things were not above even drinking with plain people, if they paid for the drink.

TO LEGALIZE.—Mr. Minis introduced a bill to legalize certain proceedings of the Board of Supervisors of Yolo county. This was in reference to certain swamp lands in Yolo and Colusa counties belonging to George Hager. Mr. Tompkins fought the bill inch by inch. He made appeal after appeal on the subject, but all to no purpose. Your Senator, and his measure were too strong for the opposition. This is said to be the strongest wedge for some more important swamp land transactions. As the blind man said: "We will see."

MILITIA.—The subject of militia is at last settled. Gen. Evans, who has had this important matter resting upon his ample shoulders, so far as the Senate is concerned, has had a bill sent in from the Assembly which meets this approval partially—not fully. This bill, which will become the law, reduces the companies from sixty to forty, and increases the taxes from one and a-half cents to two cents on the one hundred dollars, and regulates the whole machinery to suit this reduction of companies. It was laughable, when the former bill was under discussion, and Gen. Beige feared a reduction of the officers. Looking around the Senate with his vacant, comical look, he asked, "What would become of the Generals?"

RAILROAD BILL.—Mr. Oulton has had a bill passed the Senate which has already gone through the Assembly, granting the Supervisors of the City of San Francisco to sell or convey certain streets, alleys, slips, docks and wharves; in all, about one hundred acres, to the railroad for commercial purposes, for depots, or such other matter as they may wish to put to it. This property belongs to the State, and the City of San Francisco asks the State to donate all this property around the water front, so that she can bribe the railroad to make its depot in the City instead of Goat Island.

RECLAMATION INDEBTEDNESS.—Mr. Harney, of Sacramento, has introduced to the Assembly a bill to provide for funding the indebtedness of the reclamation and levee districts of the State. This is said to be the most important bill of the session. It will enable the swamp land men to issue bonds to the amount of many millions. This bill was up yesterday, and passed last night. It would not be wise for us to attempt to discuss this bill in a letter, the subject is too vast.

DISTRICT ATTORNEYS.—The Code takes away some of the perquisites of the District Attorney of the State, and therefore it was considered necessary to raise their salaries. Your county of Yolo is placed at $1,500 a year.

EARTHQUAKE.—We had a nice long shake by this delectable and powerful agent. We are not in love with this kind of rocking, and would rather be left alone. It is our first experience in a big one—the mountains where we have resided being too heavy and unwieldy to be easily dandled in the lap of old Mother Earthquake. "Rock me to sleep, mother," was not our prayer; nor yet, "Knock me down."

DEXTER BEATEN—AFTER BONNER.—From the day that the famous horse "Dexter" became the property of Mr. Bonner, the name of the renowned trotter has been used to a great extent in advertising the Lexter. But "Goldsmith Mail" has beaten Dexter's time, and a new literary enterprise has just been started in Colusa under auspices which indicate a determination on the part of the projectors and publishers to water the Lexter in the field of journalism. Eberts & Co., 783 State St., Chicago, are issuing "Our Fireside Friend," a very handsome, illustrated, eight page, literary and fireside weekly, of an expenditure of $100,000 in horse-flesh, they will distribute that amount among their subscribers for 1872, in the way of premiums. Their capital premium is $20,000 in United States currency. It is manifest that the enterprising publishers intend to secure an immense circulation for their paper, and it is no less probable that when such inducements in the way of premiums—in connection with a readable and first-class journal—are offered, the enterprise will prove a grand success. The premium list is large and varied. Specimen copies of the Paper Premium List, etc., sent free to any address.

PUZZLING.—A young mamma on the occasion of making her little boy his first pair of trousers, conceived the idea that it would be more economical to make them of the same dimensions behind and before, so that they might be changed about and wear evenly. Their effect, when the little garment was donned by the little fellow, was to cause his paternal parent to exclaim: "Oh! my dear, how could you have the heart to do it? Why, the little fellow won't know whether he's going to school or coming home."

THE arm-plated ram "Thunderer" was launched at London recently. "Thunderer" is a turret vessel, and will carry four guns, each weighing thirty-five tons.

DIED.—Near Woodland, March 24th, of consumption, James B. Geary, aged 25 years.

THE WILD MAN OF COLUSA.
EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—I presume you have heard of the existence of the northern boundary of this county, of a strange character, who, living alone in the woods and underbrush of that region, has been in the habit of levying and collecting regular assessments for his support from the farmers and stockmen thereabout. Armed to the teeth with an ugly knife, a pair of revolvers and a repeating rifle, he enforces his demands for tobacco, bacon, gunpowder, flour, and other useful articles, suggested to his appetite or fancy with a look, and, like a lover, laughing at look-smiths, he sometimes breaks into the houses of absent owners, and helps himself to articles of value. When asked, a short time since, if he did not fear an arrest, he replied by stating that he would not be taken alive, and asked his interrogator what the officers would want with a dead man.

In reckless disregard of the rights of others, he has persisted in his depredations until he has become a terror to the neighborhood. Several persons who are familiar with his haunts and habits have talked of attempting his arrest; but, after mutual consultation, agreed in the opinion that they had lost too wild man. A few days since, however, a gentleman who lives not far from the boundary line of Colusa and Yolo realized, or imagined, that he had lost one, and forthwith commenced preparations for a search and capture of the bandit. He called to his aid seven stalwart companions; and, arming the company—including himself—with lassos, shotguns, canteens, and three days' rations of crackers and beans, drew them up in line and addressed them as follows: "Fellow Countrymen! I have lost a wild man of the forest. In yonder thicket he crouches like a Bengal tiger, awaiting the opportunity to make like a wolf on the fold, to bring destruction to your peaceful homes. We are now about to march upon the enemy in his stronghold. Waver not in the contest. When the fight rages, if you should observe me falling back, do not become demoralized, but remember that if I retreat it will only be for the purpose of bringing up the rear guard and other reinforcements. Therefore do not look for your leader, but keep your eye on the enemy. Reserve your fire till you are within range of the enemy's guns, and when you are commanded to shoot, miss your fire so that you do not miss your mark. Squadron, advance!"

After a ride of several hours the party came upon the wild man, who, unaware of their approach, was peacefully reclining near his camp fire, making a supper of roast rabbit. Suddenly he was startled by the stentorian voice of the captain of the advancing hosts, who called out in ominous tones: "Surrender or die!" In an instant the bandit sprang to his feet, rifle in hand, exclaiming: "I'll never surrender to beef-eating barbarians. Take that, you corn-fed creatures of corrupt civilization!" and, suiting his action to his words, he sent a rifle ball whizzing through the airburn locks of the gallant captain, who, in the excitement of the moment, thought himself mortally wounded, and, falling over on the side of his steed, cried out to his comrades: "Return the fire, boys; I'm gone."

A tremendous broadside shook the earth. The smoke and din of rattling canteens frightened the steeds, unused to warlike scenes, and it is not known exactly how the battle ended. It is reported, however, that some of the attacking party lost their supplies of ammunition, but that nobody was hurt! Reinforcements have not yet arrived, and the wild man of Colusa is still at large. Z. Hungry Hollow, March 24.

IMPROVE YOUR POULTRY.—An advertisement in another column tells you how this may be done. Good poultry is much more profitable than the common kinds, and it costs no more to keep them, when once purchased. Mr. Bayley sends descriptive circulars, on application, for a single postage stamp. His address is Geo. R. Bayley, corner 18th and Castro streets, Oakland, Cal.

LET THE HAIR AND GRAY USE HALL'S Vegetable Sulfur Hair Renewer, if they desire as good a head of hair as in youth.

BORN.—At North Platte, Nebraska, March 24th, to the wife of R. M. Bennett, twin daughters.

MARRIED.—In Davisville, March 24th, by Elder J. N. Pendegast, Frederick Kings to Miss Chloe Collins, both of Davisville.

The printer was remembered on the occasion, and accompanying the above notice was a very liberal supply of sparkling champagne and rich wedding cake. If good wishes can aid the future of our friend Fred and his fair partner will most assuredly be characterized by unbounded prosperity and happiness.

In Woodland, March 24th, by Rev. Father Speiman, J. B. Watson to Miss Kate Hargis, both of Woodland.

At the residence of the bride's father, in West Graton, Yolo County, Cal., March 27th, by Elder J. N. Pendegast, J. Waverly Anderson to Miss Hannah E. Gliscor.

The above announcement was accompanied by a basket of such good things as are usually indulged in at the marriage feast. We are informed by persons who were present, that it was one of the most pleasant and enjoyable gatherings of the kind ever convened in Yolo, and will long be remembered by the large circle of friends present with feelings of great satisfaction. A superb supper contributed to the flow of conviviality, and a happy good humored heart of every guest. The bride's dress was of white satin, trimmed with satin and lace, which, with the usual appendage of orange flowers and veil, presented a rare combination of simplicity and elegance attained only by the dictates of a refined taste. Three bridesmaids were in attendance, who were dressed in white, and wore long white tulle veils. The groom wore a suit of black, and the bridesmaids wore a multitude of friends who with the happy pair on their voyage across the river of life.

THE NEW CODE.
We shall publish as fast as room will permit extracts from the code in which the people of this county are particularly interested, commencing this week with the following on Licenses:

A license must be procured immediately before the commencement of any business or occupation liable to a license tax, from the Tax Collector of the county where the applicant desires to transact the same, which license authorizes the party obtaining the same, in each town, city or particular locality in the county to transact the business described in such license; separate licenses must be obtained for every branch establishment or separate house of business located in the same county. No license issued under this Chapter authorizes any person to carry on any business within the limits of any incorporated city or town having power by its charter to impose or levy city or town license taxes, unless such person, in addition to the license provided by this Chapter, also procures the license required by the ordinances or orders of such city or town.

Against any person required to take out a license, who fails, neglects or refuses to take out such license, or who attempts to carry on business without such license, the Collector may direct the State of California as plaintiff, to be brought for the recovery of the license tax; and in such case either the Collector or attorney may make the necessary affidavit with a writ of attachment may issue without any bond, being given on behalf of the Plaintiff; and in case of a recovery by the Plaintiff fifteen dollars must be added to the judgment and costs to be collected from the defendant, and when collected five dollars thereof must be paid to the Collector and ten dollars to the attorney procuring the suit.

Licenses must be obtained for the purposes hereinafter named, for which the Tax Collector must require the payment as follows:

1. From each proprietor or keeper of a billiard table not kept exclusively for family use, for each table, five dollars per quarter; and for a bowling alley, five dollars per quarter for each alley; but no license must be granted for a less term than three months.
2. From the manager or lessee of every theater, five dollars per day, if granted for a less term than one month; if granted for one month, one hundred dollars; if for three months, two hundred dollars; and if for one year six hundred dollars; and for each exhibition of acrobats, negro minstrels, opera, melodrama performance, or other musical entertainment, dancing or ballet, the same sum per license as is herein provided for a theater license.
3. For each exhibition for pay of a caravan or menagerie, or collection of animals, circus, equestrian or acrobatic performance, ten dollars; and for each show for pay of any figures, jugglers, tumblers, magicians, wire or rope dancing, or sleight of hand exhibition, five dollars each day.
4. From every insurance company, insured in pursuance of the laws of this State and transacting an insurance business therein, twenty-five dollars per quarter.
5. From every insurer or insurance company, foreign or otherwise, not chartered by the laws of this State and transacting business therein, one hundred dollars per quarter.
6. From each pawnbroker, thirty dollars per quarter.
7. From each keeper of an intelligence office fifteen dollars per quarter.
